

Defeat in Election A Political Crisis For Laborite Party

England's New Foreign Office
Chief Is a Relative Unknown

BY COLIN FROST

LONDON (AP) — Britain's three-month-old Labor government faced a political crisis today in the wake of Patrick Gordon Walker's defeat at the polls and his subsequent resignation as foreign secretary.

Prime Minister Harold Wilson named Michael Stewart, 58, relatively unknown education minister, as the new foreign secretary in a first step to repair the damage caused by Gordon Walker's stinging defeat in an attempt to win a seat in Parliament.

With Labor's majority in parliament reduced to a mere three votes, the Conservatives were in position now for a move to bring down Wilson's government. Wilson, however, was reported determined to keep his government in power and push ahead with his socialistic program.

The Conservatives predicted Wilson might have to dissolve Parliament and call new elections perhaps as early as spring. The key test may come within weeks when the house debates Wilson's pledge to nationalize the steel industry.

The middle road Liberal party has declared it will throw its nine votes against nationalization. Labor thus will have to muster all its strength in Commons if its government is to survive.

Wilson has ordered the party's senior ministers to barnstorm the country in a massive campaign to blame the Conservatives for the nation's economic headaches.

Increased gasoline taxes and a 15 per cent surcharge on imports have been followed by a wave of price increases affecting virtually every household commodity.

Stewart, Britain's third foreign minister in as many months, said Friday in a speech to university students: "We came into office inheritors of one of the worst inheritances ever handed to any government, and we are tackling that inheritance with the integrity and coherence of vision that the situation requires."

Wilson paid respect to Gordon Walker in a letter for "the tremendous job you have done in the past three months." Gordon Walker, a former history teacher and author, said he would return to these professions after a brief rest.

Anthony Crosland, 46, former economics secretary to the treasury, was named to succeed Stewart in the education ministry.

Goldwater Takes Blame for GOP Election Defeat

CHICAGO (AP) — For a while Barry Goldwater was back on the campaign stump. He was, in effect, relinquishing his six-month command of the Republican party.

But the beaten presidential nominee couched an apology to Republicans with an attack on Democrats.

The campaign speech was a bit rusty, but the themes he hammered at during his race against President Johnson were still there.

And Goldwater was personally accepting the responsibility for his landslide loss in November.

"Let's stop blaming everyone else for this defeat I suffered," the former Arizona senator said Friday. The Republican National Committee already had accepted the resignation of his chosen national chairman, Dean Burch, and elected Ray C. Bliss to take over.

Humphrey Denies Need for Alarm

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey said today that President Johnson was resting very well, there is no need for alarm "and the President insists that we get on with our work."

Humphrey talked to reporters briefly as he left his house in Chevy Chase, Md., for National Airport to take a plane to St. Paul, Minn. He will be the grand marshal in the winter carnival parade in St. Paul today.

Attempt Registration

King Has Praise for Negro Demonstrators

SELMA, Ala. (AP) — An abortive attempt by about 100 Negro schoolteachers to enter the Dallas County Courthouse was praised by Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. as the most dramatic protest thus far in the week-long civil rights struggle here.

The teachers attempted three times to get into the courthouse, saying they wanted to register as voters. Each time Sheriff James G. Clark and some of his deputies pushed them back down the steps with night sticks Friday. The voter registration board was not in session at the time.

Returned Friday However, King, who returned to Selma Friday to lead the drive, called the demonstration the most significant since the movement began.

"This is the first time in the history of the movement that so well-organized and dramatic a protest has been made by any professional group in the Negro community," the Nobel Peace Prize winner told a crowd of about 1,000 Negroes a few hours after the attempt failed.

No one was reported struck by the clubs, and no one was arrested before the Negroes finally walked away from the courthouse. However, a white civil-rights worker near the courthouse was attacked by another white man swinging his

President Is Hospitalized With Respiratory Ailment

Admission at 2:55 a.m.;
News Secretary Denies Any
Heart Condition Involved

BY BARRY SCHWEID

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson was taken to the Bethesda Naval Hospital in the dark hours this morning suffering from what his physician called a "respiratory infection." At the hospital he spent "a rather restless night."

President Johnson

But White House press secretary George E. Reedy told newsmen at an 8 a.m. briefing there was "no alarm whatever" about the President's condition. Johnson was brought from the White House to the hospital by ambulance. But he walked to the ambulance at the White House and again from it into the hospital.

Johnson's illness was described by his personal physician as "a common cold with tracheal and bronchial irritation."

Heart Normal "His heart is completely normal," Reedy said in announcing that the President, 56, victim of a severe heart attack in 1955, had been admitted to the hospital at about 2:55 a.m.

No particular anxiety about the President's condition was indicated by his vice president, Hubert H. Humphrey. An aide said Humphrey was continuing with his plans to fly to St. Paul, Minn., today to serve as grand marshal at the city's winter carnival.

Johnson, who just wound up a hectic inaugural week including long hours of reviewing the parade in his honor without wearing either topcoat or hat, summoned his physician at about 1 a.m. after experiencing pains in his throat and upper chest.

Complete Rest Reedy said the physician, Rear Adm. George G. Burkley recommended the President enter the hospital because Johnson responds more quickly to complete rest when suffering from an infection of this sort.

Johnson complained that he had a "miserable" cough and a pain in his chest. He made this comment to Reedy both at the White House and around 5 a.m. at the hospital.

The President, who slept intermittently, said — in Reedy's words — "that he had awakened very early in the morning feeling this pain and feeling this miserable cough."

Johnson sat in the rear of the ambulance bringing him from the White House, wearing a bathrobe, and walked into the hospital through the emergency entrance.

CAB Not Forcing Use of Old Airport

Statement Said Outagamie Can't
Compel North Central to Move

BY DICK LYNEIS

Post-Crescent Staff Writer

Contrary to wire service reports on Friday afternoon, the Civil Aeronautics Board (CAB) is not compelling Outagamie County to continue operations at its old airport.

The CAB, in reaffirming its Jan. 15 stay order on consolidation of North Central Airlines service to Wisconsin airports, merely stated Outagamie County cannot close its old airport and force North Central to provide service at the new Town of Greenville airport.

However, Howard Feldman, counsel for the CAB, in a telephone call from his Washington office, said North Central can voluntarily transfer operations to the new airport. "It's a matter to be decided by North Central and Outagamie County," he said.

Status Quo

Feldman said after Jan. 15, when the CAB granted the stay order. Oshkosh and Winnebago County authorities filed an opinion that the "status quo" would not be maintained if Outagamie County was to open its new airport and close the old airport.

"This changes the circumstances under which the stay order was granted," the CAB said Friday.

Feldman said Friday's CAB announcement "reaffirms its Jan. 15 action in which the board pointed out its decision to stay the order to combine Fox Cities airport service with Oshkosh service at the Winnebago County Airport in Oshkosh" was predicated on its belief that the public interest would be best

Churchill Has Held Ground

LONDON (AP) — Sir Winston Churchill's condition deteriorated Friday, but the statesman went through the night without losing any more ground.

Churchill's 82-year-old personal physician, spent 25 minutes with his famous patient just before noon, then issued this medical bulletin:

"There is nothing to report. There will be another bulletin tonight."

Johnson's Medical History Contains Bronchial Trouble

President's Condition Month
Ago Proclaimed as Excellent

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Johnson's hospitalization today came one month after two physicians — including his heart specialist — said he was in excellent physical shape.

But his past medical history includes a severe heart attack in 1955, a kidney ailment which last kicked up in 1963 and a series of small wart-like growths, due to overexposure from the sun, the last of which were removed Dec. 3.

Respiratory Infection And the White House, in announcing Johnson's hospitalization today with what his physician called "a respiratory infection," said Johnson had "a previous history of bronchiectasis" — described in the dictionary as a dilation of the upper bronchial tubes — which causes pain in the upper chest when he coughs.

At the time of Johnson's heart attack — July 2, 1955 — he was rushed as he was early today to the U.S. Naval Hospital in the Washington suburb of Bethesda, Md. after a long recuperation at his Johnson City, Tex., ranch he returned to Washington the following January to resume his duties as Senate Democratic leader.

Heart Trouble

Dr. John Willis Hurst, professor and chairman of the department of medicine, Emory University, Atlanta, Ga., who was chief of the cardiology division at Bethesda in 1955, said last month: "Since he has had no difficulty from his heart in nearly 10 years, he is now in a very favorable group. It is my belief that his health outlook is that of any other apparently healthy individual of comparable age."

Dr. James W. Cain of the Mayo Clinic in Rochester, Minn., said at the same time that a recent examination of the President indicated "his health is excellent."

"His heart is doing very, very well. All signs of the old heart attack are gone. If you did not know that he had that old attack, seeing him now and examining him now would give you no clue that he had had a previous heart attack."

Reported Normal Johnson's heart was reported normal after an electrocardiogram today, the White House said.

Dr. Cain said the President had one kidney stone removed surgically in 1955, prior to the heart attack and had another stone removed "by non-surgical manipulation when he was first running for the Senate."

He said the President suffered a slight recurrence of the kidney ailment in mid-1963, but quickly responded to non-surgical treatment, including orders by his doctors to cut down on his intake of milk, since kidney stones are related to an excess of calcium.

The President shows no symptoms from them now," Dr. Cain said.

Both Dr. Cain and Dr. Hurst said they thought the President — who weighs about 200 pounds — should lose about 10 pounds.

U. S. War Veteran Named as Chief of Missiles in Cuba

MIAMI, Fla. (AP) — A Cuban exile newscaster says a World War II veteran on the American side named Otto Peterson is Cuba's new missile chief.

"Peterson, a Cuban despite his name, is the man in a position to push Castro's missile button," said the exile, Max Lesnik, citing underground sources.

Lesnik said he met Peterson before defecting from the Castro regime. He said Peterson fought for the United States in Germany and later against the Cuban dictator Fulgencio Batista on Castro's side.

Ruled Civil Rights

School Boycott Leaders Win Decision in Court

NEW YORK (AP) — City school officials have reacted angrily to a state court ruling that places their efforts to halt spreading school boycott under the federal jurisdiction of the 1964 civil rights law.

Boycott leaders, arrested two days ago for successfully urging pupils to stay out of a primarily Negro Brooklyn school, Friday won the court decision they had sought, declaring their case a civil rights matter.

"Absurd" was the comment of School Board President James B. Donovan.

"If this ruling is law," he told reporters, "it means that a man can set a building afire, say that he is demonstrating for civil rights and when he is arrested, go to federal court. This will mean months of delay. Meanwhile, the fires are burning."

The boycott, begun four days ago at Brooklyn's P.S. 617, a school for disturbed youngsters, spread Friday to junior high school 139 in Harlem, where 35 per cent of the pupils stayed home.

The Rev. Milton A. Galamison, Negro minister who led two school boycotts last winter, has said his goal is to shut down 45

Dock Workers May Accept New Contract

NEW YORK (AP) — The big Atlantic ports from Boston to Virginia appeared falling in line with the contract terms accepted by New York dockers to end the East and Gulf Coast port walkout, now in its 13th day.

But the deadlock — mainly over the size of work gangs — in ports from Morehead, N.C., to Brownsville, Tex., left some doubt over return to work by all 60,000 members of the AFL-CIO International Longshoremen's Association.

Expressing optimism Friday over a complete return-to-work movement on both coasts was ILA President Thomas Gleason, who said: "I think 24 to 48 hours at a maximum."

Gleason meanwhile gave orders to remove New York Harbor pickets, allow a half dozen or more transatlantic luxury liners to resume runs, and said perishable cargo aboard freighters would be unloaded.

At Least 4 Inches of Snow Expected Today

Fox Cities — Cloudy and windy with snow today and tonight with four or more inches. Gradually diminishing to flurries Sunday. Little change in temperature. Low tonight near 18 degrees. High Sunday, near 25 with strong northeasterly winds from 20 to 30 miles per hour.

Appleton — Observations at 10 a.m. today. Temperatures for the 24 hours: High, 27, low, 15. Wind: 20 to 35 miles an hour out of the east northeast. Relative humidity: 100. Dew point: 16. Snow: 0.5. Barometer: 30.08 and falling. Temperature: 19. Skies are cloudy.

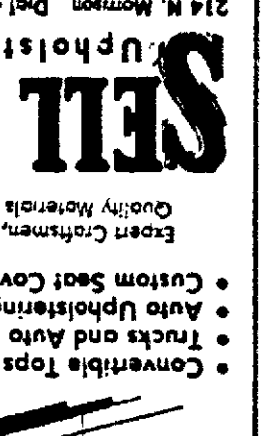

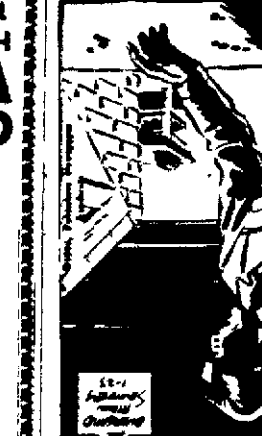

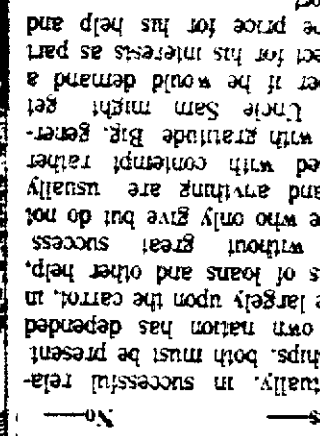

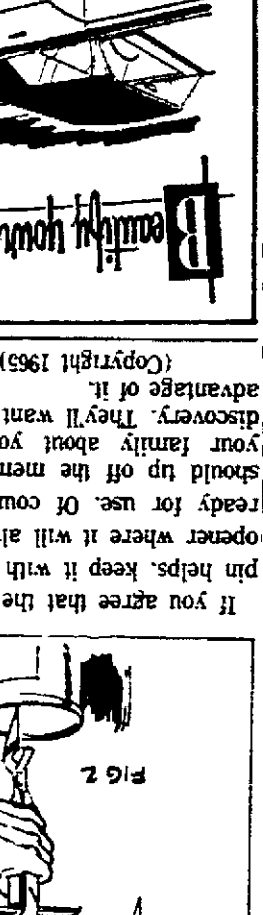

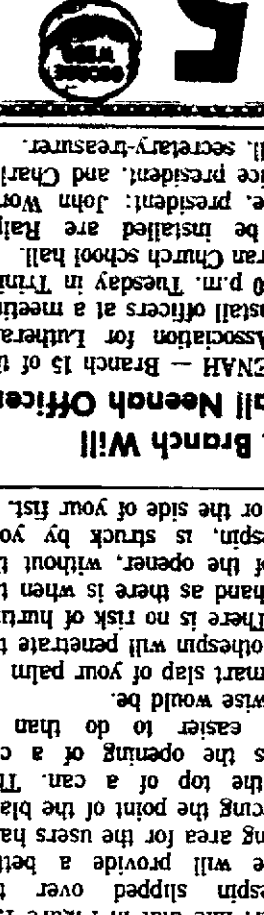

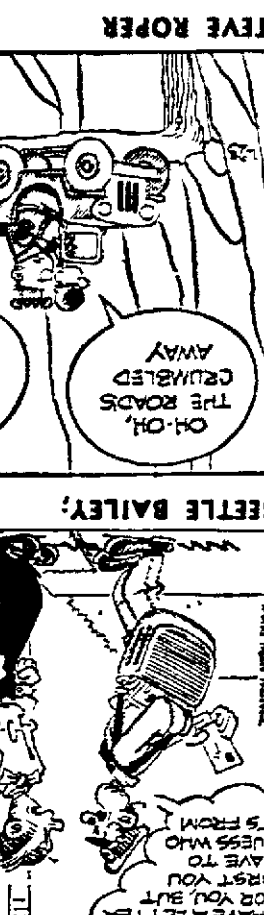

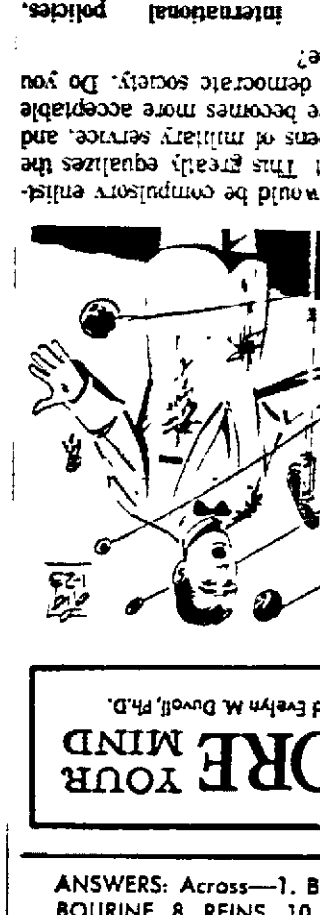

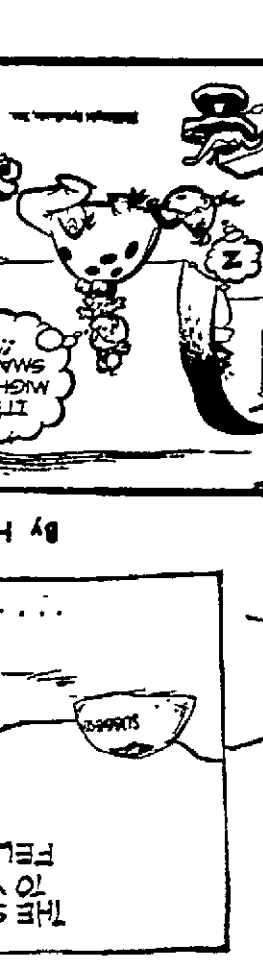

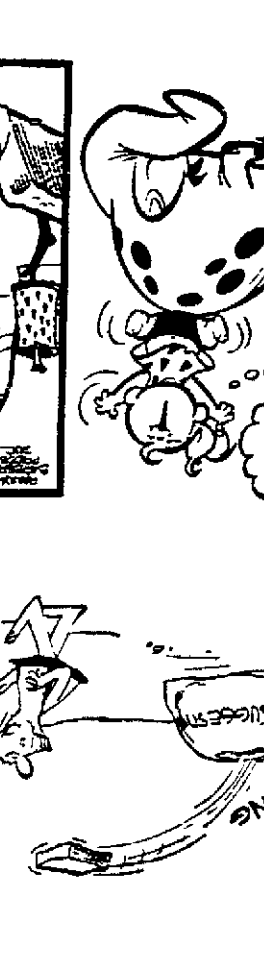

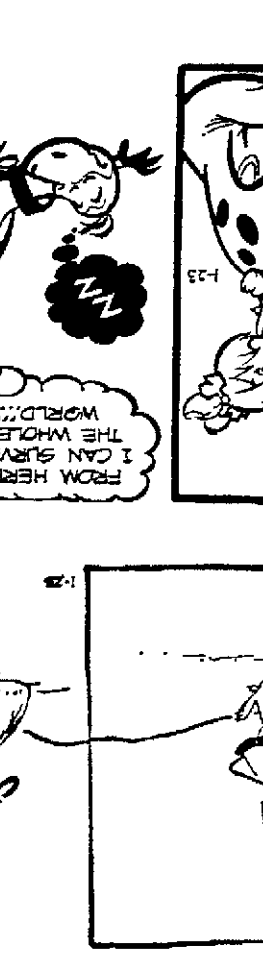

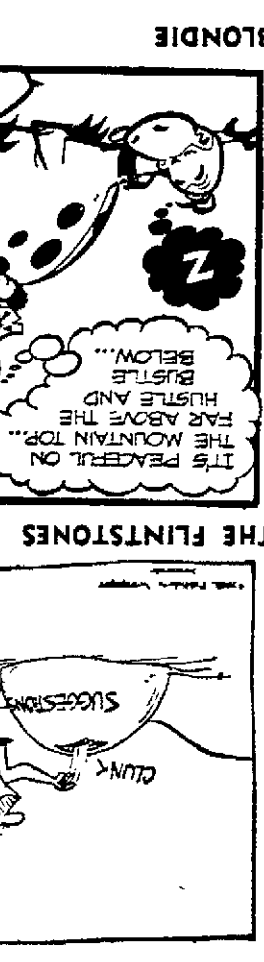

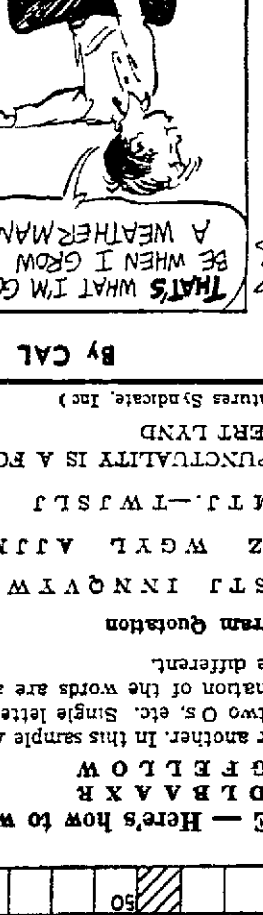

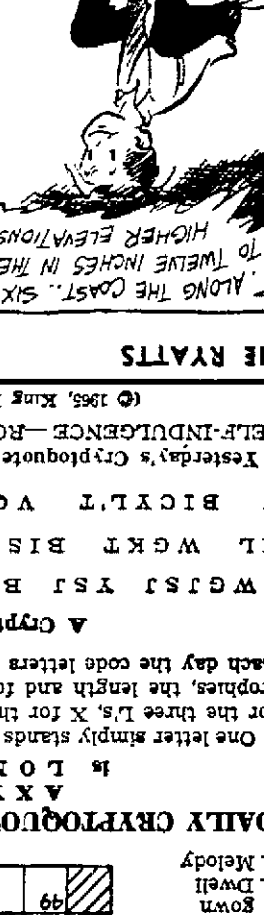

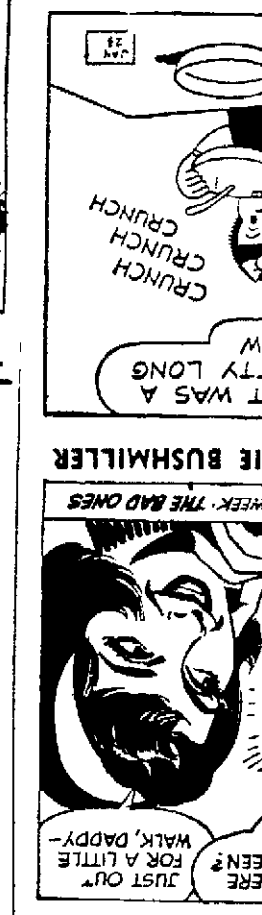

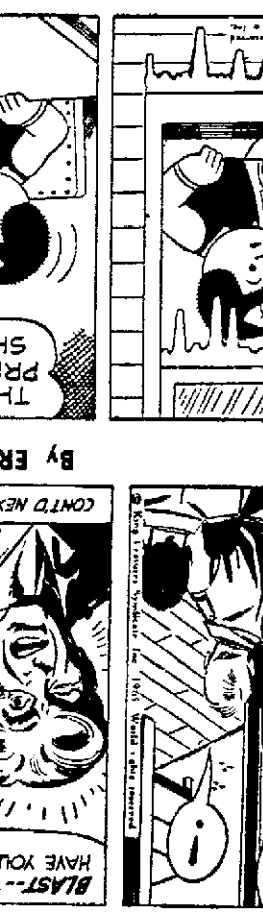

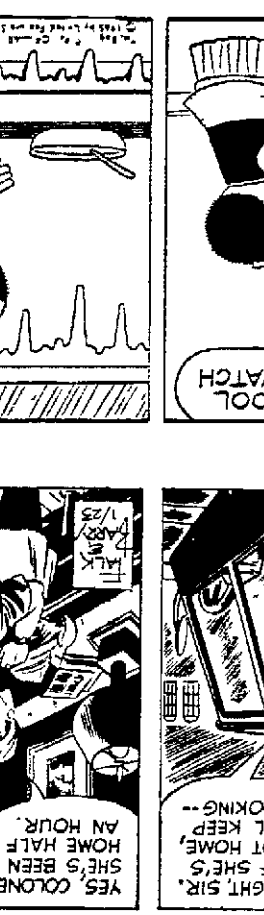

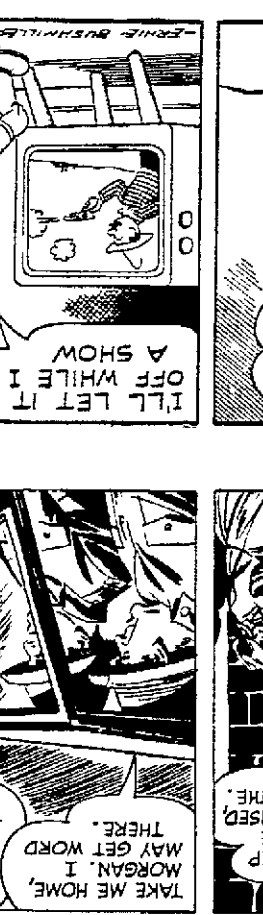

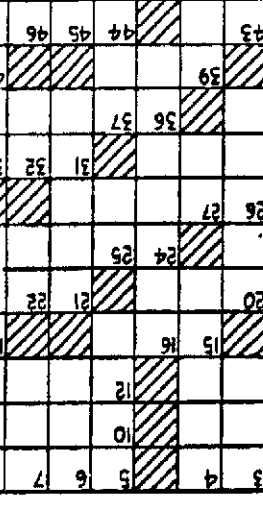

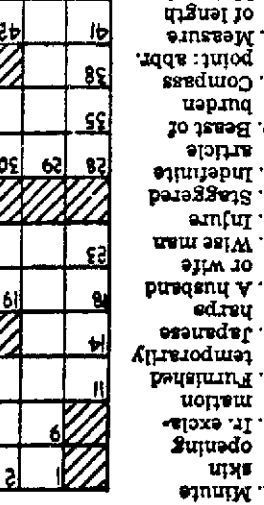

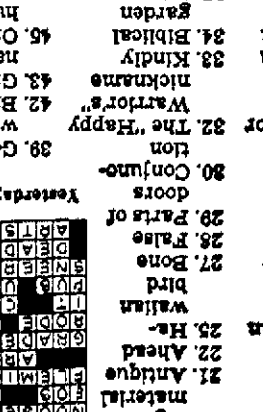

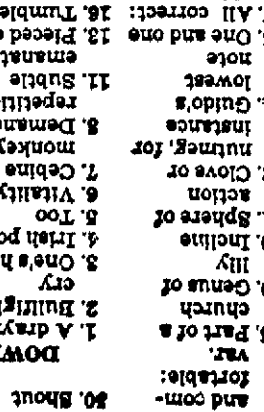

Sun sets at 4:50 p.m., rises Sunday at 7:20 a.m.: Moonrise at 12:17 a.m. Prominent star is Sirius. Visible planets are Saturn and Jupiter.

Mr. and Mrs. Edgar C. Park of Phoenix, Ariz., left, made a down payment of $30,000 Friday on a pledge of $100,000 to the University of Arizona. The check was accepted by Martin Gentry of the university foundation. Park became an electrician and worked 20 years at a salary never over $2.75 an hour. The couple made their money buying and selling securities. (AP Wirephoto)

LBJ School Proposals to Begin an Era

Celebrezze Tells
Of $1.4 Million
Plan at Hearing

WASHINGTON (AP) — The administration's proposals for aiding elementary and secondary schools were presented to a House subcommittee today as the beginning of "a new era in education."

Anthony J. Celebrezze, secretary of Health, Education and Welfare, outlined the $1.4-billion program as the first witness at the first hearings on the program.

He called President Johnson's proposal to base aid school districts on the number of children from low-income families "imaginative and eminently practical."

Johnson has asked for a billion dollars for that phase of his program. Other aid is sought for the purchase of textbooks, for special courses and assistance and for educational research laboratories.

Major Goal
Celebrezze said Johnson has made the achievement of full educational opportunity for every child a major national goal and a basis for the establishment of the "Great Society" he envisions.

The first step toward reaching that goal, the secretary said, must be giving children of greatest need a better opportunity.

"We have come to see the clear link between high educational and high economic attainment," he said, "and between poor education and corrosive poverty that affects not only the individual but his city and state, and the whole nation's program."

Celebrezze said inadequate education is a major factor in the present high rates of youth unemployment, delinquency and crime.

At a time when elementary and secondary school enrollment will increase by four million within the next five years, close to the same number will drop out of high school, he said.

"The cause of these dropouts

Last Rites Set for Meat Market Operator

CHILTON — Funeral services for Anton J. Berger, 72, 121 Oak St., a meat market operator here for 35 years, will be at 10 a.m. Monday at St. Mary Catholic Church.

Berger died Thursday after a long illness. He is survived by his widow, three daughters, and two stepdaughters. Burial will be in St. Mary Cemetery.

and the despair and disillusionment that characterize them," he said, "is not so much that the students have failed education as that education, as they have found it, has far too often failed them."

Francis Keppel, commissioner of education, another witness, said in prepared testimony that the federal government is not now carrying its fair share of the cost of education, which he estimated at more than $34 billion a year.

"If we fail to spend enough for good education today, and spend where it counts most, we will spend many times more in social services tomorrow," he said.

Keppel said the administration's program offers an opportunity to interrupt the cycle of poverty "where we have a fighting chance."

New Federal Education Bill Receives Support

Catholic Congressman Who Helped Block
Kennedy Bill Predicts Break in Deadlock

WASHINGTON (AP) — Rep. James J. Delaney, a Roman Catholic congressman who has helped block federal aid to education bills in the past, says the new administration bill should break the long deadlock.

The New York Democrat sees President Johnson's approach of aiding children of low-income families, whether in public or private schools, as "a great step forward."

Delaney, normally a strong administration supporter on the House Rules Committee, switched sides in 1961 and helped kill President John F. Kennedy's school-aid bill by an 8-7 vote. Here he discusses aid-to-education legislation in an exclusive Associated Press interview.

Killed Bill
Q. Is it fair to say you killed the Kennedy school bill?

A. Yes. The bill was discriminatory from its inception. It would have helped only public schools, and no amendments could even be offered to aid private schools.

Q. How do you feel about that vote now?

A. I said at the time I wanted to clear the air. Up until then no one had thought of what could be done constitutionally to help education. I think it has worked. People know much more about this now. It would have been a mistake to pass that bill in 1961.

Q. Does the Johnson bill, in general, meet your objections to the Kennedy bill?

A. Yes. It makes the child, not the school, the beneficiary of the program.

Q. For the last few years you've introduced a bill you call the "junior GI bill," which would authorize an annual grant for each child attending school, whether public or private. Do you intend to offer it again?

A. Yes. I consider it a more efficient bill. Under the general welfare clause we grant old-age assistance to people in Protestant, Catholic and Jewish homes. Surely that principle is just as valid in the field of education.

I also favor income tax deductions for private school tuition. But I can't oppose the administration bill because it would treat all children equally.

Language Barrier
Q. Do you think the President should have been more explicit in saying how parochial schools are to benefit under his bill?

Driver Course Registration Opens April 12

AVS Sets Outline
Of Program for Students, Adults

The Appleton Vocational and Adult School has announced plans for its spring and summer driver education program for high school students and adults. The school is receiving many inquiries about the program, said AVS Director Carl G. Bertram.

Registration for both students and adults will begin the week of April 12, and will be held from 8 a.m. to noon and 1 to 4 p.m. weekdays as long as vacancies remain. No registrations will be accepted before April 12.

Classroom instruction for high school students will begin the week of April 26 and continue for seven and one-half weeks, two evenings per week, for a total of 30 hours.

Classroom instruction for adults will begin the week of May 31 and continue for three and one-half weeks at the rate of two evenings per week, for a total of 14 hours.

Classroom Instruction
Classroom instruction for students in private high schools away from Appleton will begin June 14 and continue for seven and one-half weeks, two evenings per week, for a total of 30 hours.

Behind-the-wheel driving instruction will begin the week of June 14, and a new group will begin every three weeks. The course includes a total of six hours of driving instruction for both students and adults. Students must take an additional six hours of driving observation.

Fees will be $5 for students, $15 for adults who live in Appleton, and $25 for non-residents.

Registration will be in the main office of the school. No phone or mail registrations will be accepted because the driving schedule must be selected and registered in the office.

Detailed instructions on the program will be distributed to students in Appleton's three high schools. Adults may obtain instructions at the vocational school.

K of C to Hear Of Mission Work In Nicaragua

KAUKAUNA — The Rev. David Belongea, OFM Cap., native of Kaukauna and graduate of St. Mary Grade School, will show colored slides and talk on mission work being done in Nicaragua, Central America, at a meeting of the Knights of Columbus at 8 p.m. Monday in the K of C hall.

Program chairman is Gerald Schoen. The Rev. Mr. Belongea is currently on leave from mission work in that country and will return after a few months leave.

Plans will be discussed for the Post-Christmas dinner and dance to be held at the hall Jan. 30 beginning with a 5:30 p.m. cocktail hour followed by dinner and dancing from 8 to midnight.

Members will be permitted to bring guests, according to Dr. William Haanen, general chairman.

Exemplification of the first degree for new members of the Kaukauna, Kimberly-Little, Chute, and two Appleton councils will be held at 10 a.m. Jan. 31 at the hall.

The Kaukauna choir will participate in exemplification of the second and third degrees at St. Mary's, Appleton, on Feb. 14.

To Your Good Health

Artificial Sweetener Advised for Diabetics

BY JOSEPH MOLNER, M.D.

Dear Dr. Molner: My mother is a diabetic. When I am at work during the day she looks all over the house to find sweets. I blow a fuse when she has eaten candy, cake or ice cream.

She has had infections and operations on both feet, and then I have to stay home until she gets her diabetes under control.

What can I do for her craving for sweets? She is 80 years old.

At this stage, you can't do much about her craving for sweets. She's been acquiring the taste for almost 80 years, and a habit can't then be changed quickly.

Other than resigning yourself to the situation, my suggestion is: Don't have ice cream in the house. Keep sugar, candy, cake or other sweets in a locked cupboard.

Provide a moderate amount of soft drinks, cookies or other goodies which are prepared with artificial sweeteners.

Dear Dr. Molner: What about a vaccination for limited foreign travel, to prevent intestinal disturbances?

It is the typhoid-paratyphoid vaccination, and very frequently used — although perhaps not often enough. The reason for the typhoid is obvious enough: the paratyphoid prevents a good deal of intestinal upsets.

Dear Dr. Molner: My son has been having cloudy urine. What does this mean?

Cloudy urine, without any distress (burning or the like) is usually due to small crystals. They are too small to see, of course, except as the cloudiness. If, then, the urine is alkaline, these crystals are usually phosphates. Eating a good deal of fruit will cause this. Or if it is acid, the crystals usually are urates or oxalates.

Either way, it is an indication that the urine is rather concentrated, and perhaps more water or other liquids should be consumed. The crystals are normal enough, basically.

If the cloudiness is the result of pus (indicating an infection which should be attended to promptly) there would be such symptoms as a burning sensation, frequency of urination, and fever.

Or if the cloudiness is due to traces of blood, which also requires prompt and careful attention, the urine is a reddish, "smokey" color, and there usually will be distress on urination, too.

Dear Dr. Molner: I have been taking Vitamin C tablets daily for three months, to build up my resistance to colds. Are there any bad effects from this?

No, because the body will easily dispose of any Vitamin C beyond the amount you need.

State Still Has
1-Room Schools

MADISON — The State Department of Public Instruction, which has tried for many years to discourage the operation of one teacher schools, reports that 124 of such schools remain in the state, including several in the Appleton area.

Among such schools surviving, the department says in a current bulletin, are the Elm Grove School in rural Green Bay, with 23 pupils enrolled; Sandy Bay, Wausau and Norman schools in West Kewaunee, with 37, 22 and 27 pupils respectively; Cloverleaf School at Hortonville, with 28; Knowledge Hill School at Manawa, with 20; Collins and Clarks Mill Fond du Lac; the Rev. Roy E. schools, both in Manitowish

County, with 24 and 22 pupils, respectively.

Harold Arbeiter Church Head

Faith Lutheran
Officers Selected
By Congregation

Harold Arbeiter was elected new president of Faith Lutheran Church at the annual voters meeting of the congregation Tuesday evening.

Arbeiter, who also serves the parish as Bible class leader for the ninth grade youth class, will take office immediately.

Other election results place Donald Schoenfeld as the new vice-president, Carl Mueller as treasurer, Robert Meyer as member of the board of Christian education, George Knuth as trustee, and Ross Plainse on the finance committee. The latter three are three-year terms; the others terms are for one year.

Re-elected were Kenne h Jesse to the board of elders, Martin Kiepe to the youth committee, Vernon Lemke as secretary, and Harold Phillips as financial secretary.

Appointive offices being filled at this time are those of stewardship committee, Evangelism committee and deacon.

HINTS FROM Heloise

Dear Folks:
Here is another new idea . . . I can't tell you why or how this works . . . but it does!

When we clean our ovens and broilers, no matter what method we use, there is always that little wiggly rack-holder gadget along the sides of it. How do we get the grease spatters off?

Some of these sides cannot be removed and soaked in your bathtub with electric dishwasher compounds like the grates and later with a slight vinegar-water solution.

Gals, this is the only way I know of to get 'em really clean! Aren't ovens awful when it comes time to clean? But aren't they wonderful when it comes time to cook?

Happily cleaning and good cookin'.

Dear Heloise:
Include drinking straws in your children's lunch kit. No spills from pouring; no dirty cups to replace on thermos; and, best of all, a clean face to show the teacher the rest of the day.

Mrs. T. Antunez
Dear Heloise:
I keep a pair of rubber gloves right with the diaper pail.

Every time there is a soiled diaper, I put on the gloves for rinsing the diaper in the toilet bowl. It's not only sanitary but also protects one's hands from that terrifically cold water.

Mrs. Margaret Simpson
Dear Heloise:
If some morning you go out, find your car windows covered with frost or light snow and can't find your scraper, try what I did. Use your rubber or plastic kitchen spatula — believe it or not, but this really is great.

Nancy Ann Dunn
Dear Heloise:
While shopping in the dry goods department one day, I found that the dark dress I was wearing had picked up quite a lot of lint.

So . . . I purchased a 15-cent sponge powder puff to remove of those grooves. They are the greatest! Now I always keep a small foam puff in my purse just for removing lint.

Leona Beaty
Dear Heloise:
I save all the caps or tops from spray cans. They make a lovely small set of cups and dishes for a child to play with.

Women Voters League Concerned Over Lack of Twin City Candidates

NEENAH-MENASHA — Officials of the Neenah-Menasha League of Women Voters have expressed concern about the lack of candidates for aldermen and county supervisors in the Twin Cities for the April 6 election.

Mrs. D. R. Beaman, voters service chairman, reported "although 36 candidates have taken out papers for the 20 vacancies (exclusive of board of education) to be filled in Neenah and Menasha, there are no contests for 11 offices."

In Menasha, wards two and three have one candidate each for alderman and wards two and six have one candidate each for supervisor. In Neenah, the Fifth Ward has only one candidate each in the Third, Fifth, Seventh and 10th Wards for supervisors. The Eighth Ward has no candidate for supervisor. In addition, there is only one candidate for Menasha City Treasurer.

'Earn Respect'

The deadline for filing completed nomination papers for the April election is 5 p.m. Tuesday. "Perhaps this indicates the citizens of these wards are satisfied that the one candidate is the best candidate for the office," said Mrs. Paul Doering, league president. "Civic minded citizens may earn the respect of their community by filing nomination papers within the two days which remain."

Menasha candidates for alderman are:

First Ward — Joseph Omachinski (incumbent), Andrew DeLeeuw and Erwin Winarski; Second Ward — Walter Remmel (incumbent); Third Ward — Morgan Eckrich (incumbent); Fourth Ward — Richard Heindl (incumbent), Donald Sahotsky, and Jerome Lingnfske; Fifth Ward — Edmund Ciske

Jr., Edward Krablean, Luther Meyer;

Sixth Ward — Robert Winarski (incumbent), William Hecker and John Resch.

County Board

Supervisor candidates: Second Ward — Alfred Becher;

Fourth Ward — William Ryan (incumbent) and Arthur Ales.

Sixth Ward — Carl Steffin (incumbent).

City Treasurer candidates — Wilbert Edwards (incumbent). Neenah candidates for Alderman are:

First Ward — Warren Sanders (incumbent) and Paul Mueller; Second Ward — William Hout, Howard Fredrick and Ewald Miller (special election).

Third Ward — Peter Fara (incumbent) and Lawrence Driscoll.

Fifth Ward — Harry Miller (incumbent).

Seventh Ward — Donald Gommoll (incumbent), and Gordon Brittnacher;

Ninth Ward — Lyle Ernst, Earl Wilson and Milton Boehm.

Supervisor candidates are:

Third Ward — Alvin Staffeld (incumbent);

Fifth Ward — Norbert Redlin (incumbent);

Seventh Ward — John Heigl (incumbent);

Eighth Ward — none.

Tenth Ward — Clarence Loehning (incumbent).

Charge Amended, Driver Fined $25

OSHKOSH — Phil Raddatz, 46, 1025 E. Irving Ave., Oshkosh, was fined $25 and costs by Circuit Judge Arnold J. Cane Friday afternoon after Raddatz pleaded no contest to a charge of failing to yield the right-of-way.

The charge had been amended from one of driving while under the influence of intoxicants to which Raddatz had pleaded innocent when arraigned in December before Winnebago County Judge James Sitter. He asked for a 12-man jury and the case was transferred to Circuit Court.

Twin Cities To Conduct Shopper Study

NEENAH-MENASHA — The Chamber of Commerce will begin a second Twin City shopping survey in February similar to one conducted in 1961.

More than 2,000 questionnaires will be mailed to residents in the cities and townships of Neenah and Menasha. At least one family in each block of every street will receive a questionnaire, John Conrad, executive secretary, said.

Questions such as, "Where do you shop?" "For what items?" and "In what area?" will be asked. Business people will learn from questions what nights persons prefer to shop, which newspaper is most subscribed to, which radio or TV station is listened to or watched and shortcomings or compliments shoppers wish to cite.

In the 1961 survey 34 per cent of questionnaires mailed were returned. National survey returns net only 18 per cent, Konrad said.

AFS Student to Talk

NEENAH — Miss Nancy Gilbert, senior at Neenah High School, will speak to the Neenah Rotary Club Thursday noon on her experiences abroad last summer in Ireland as an American Field Service student. The meeting will be in the Valley Inn.

Menasha Man Honored By Safety Council

MILWAUKEE — Howard Aderhold, Menasha, of Marathon Paper Products group of American Can Co., was honored this week at the Wisconsin Council of Safety meeting here. Aderhold was one of 16 long-time directors cited for 12 years service in a directorship. He received a gold tie clasp indicating 12 years work.

Neenah Junior Class To Stage Variety Show

NEENAH — To the rhythm of time for the Junior Class Annual Variety Show. Curtain time is 8 p.m. next Friday and Saturday in the NBS auditorium.

The more than 15 individual acts are paced to the theme "East Side-West Side, All Around the Town." Masters of ceremonies Tim Meyer and Terry Bigalke will join with Ann Greenwald to set the pace.

Show Directors

There will be the junior dancing girls; the Anderson-Nault piano duo; The Street Sweepers, Dunwiddie and Martin; the O.K. Allen Singers; the Hungri-4, and a native dance from the Island of Bahrain.

Robert Dwell and Sally Shockly are directors of the show. Mike Milliken is general chairman. Heading the major committees for the production are Judy Anderson and Tom Jones, staging and sets; Sue Loker, makeup; Tom Rhorer, lighting; Sue Jurkis, tickets; Janey Burr, programs; Elizabeth Read, props, and Wendy Stafford, publicity.

All tickets are reserved and may be purchased at the main building ticket window, Neenah High School, at the close of each school day, or at Camera and Card Shop.

The juniors, class of 1966, are led this year by Mike Milliken, president; Wendy Spafford, vice president; Sue Jurkis, secretary, and Roberta Roberts, treasurer.

After the variety show there will be an all-school dance sponsored by the junior class. Roberta Roberts is in charge of dance arrangements.

James Lauderdale, left, treasurer of Hardwood Products Corp., is receiving an award from William Berfield, manager of the safety and health department of the Appleton office of the Employers Mutual Liability Insurance Co. The achievement award was given the corporation for a low 5.79 disabling injuries per million man hours worked during 1964. (News-Record Photo)

Woman Breaks Jail's 'Shatterproof Glass'

An Appleton woman, arrested by police early today at a taxi stand on suspicion of being drunk, smashed two panes of shatterproof glass in the city jail cells where she was confined for the night. Police said the woman was not injured.

The woman, whose name was not made public because charges against her have not been filed, will be transferred to the Outagamie County jail today to await a court appearance Monday.

Police were called to the cab stand when a cab driver reported the woman was causing trouble.

Fiance's Unstable Family Leads Girl to Consult Ann, Doctor

BY ANN LANDERS

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I am about to marry into a family of pill-takers and heavy drinkers. Charley's mother is a neurotic who goes for tranquilizing pills as if they were lemon drops. The minute she is faced with an unpleasant situation she stops eating and dopes herself up.

Landers

She's not responsible for what she says when she's on pills so everyone must overlook her mean tongue.

Her daughter does the same thing and she is only 20. Her two older sons are confirmed alcoholics who take pills right along with the booze.

Charley is the only one in the family who is normal. He doesn't drink at all and I have to fight to get an aspirin down him when he has a headache.

I've discussed this problem with my doctor and he says such behavior is more environmental than hereditary — "usually" — which leaves me with questions in my mind.

Do you feel Charley and I could raise normal children despite his nutty background? I need your help. — Out-Doped

Dear Out: A person who marries into an unstable family always runs a risk since we do inherit our nervous systems.

You don't say how old Charlie is but he seems to have done immeasurably better than the other members of his family. If you marry him I hope you will move to another city, as added insurance. Sometimes nutty relatives can make a well person sick.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: I'm 55. My husband is 57. We've been married 10 years. This is a second marriage for both of us. I was a widow. Clancy divorced his wife because he found out she was a tramp.

Our marriage was wonderful until last year — when Clancy's former wife rediscovered him.

When Clancy was married to her he never had a home-cooked meal. The house was a mess, there were no clean sheets and no groceries (so he couldn't even fix his own meals).

He carried his laundry and dry cleaning to the corner. She was such a cold proposition he nicknamed her "Ice Cube."

For the past three weekends Clancy has taken her up north and I have sat home. She leaves gloves, scarves and earrings around so I will be sure to know she has been in the car.

I'm sick of this and have told him so. He says if I don't like it I can leave. This is my house, Ann. What shall I do? — V. C.

Dear V.C.: The ice cube has melted and spring is here. When ex-mates rediscover each other the flame can get pretty high.

Tell Clancy he can move out and now, but insist that he send those support checks in the mail. Chances are he'll suddenly remember why he divorced the doll.

DEAR ANN LANDERS: We are five high school girls with a very serious problem. Last year there were five big dances but not one of us got asked to any of them, so we went stag. A whole string of fellows showed up, also tagging it.

They just stood around, holding up the walls, looking everybody over but not one of them asked a girl to dance. We had to dance with each other, which I hate.

Why do fellows come to a dance if they don't want to dance? How can we break the sound barrier and get these guys to shake a leg? Help! — Seniors Now

Dear Seniors: One reason boys don't ask girls to dance is because they don't know how to dance.

What your school needs is dancing instructions for both boys and girls. Ask your principal or dean if you can organize dance classes after school or on Friday evenings.

Make posters and promote it big. Generate some excitement. When the fellows can shake their legs with some confidence they'll do less standing around.

Parents are people — they can be right and they can be wrong. To help understand their viewpoint and to promote harmony at home, write for Ann Landers' booklet, "How To Live With Your Parents" enclosing with your request 20 cents in

Forms for Tax Relief for Aged Are Complicated

MADISON (AP)—About two of three persons seeking to participate in the new state program of property tax relief for persons over 65 are unable to figure out the application forms, the State Department of Taxation said Thursday.

James R. Morgan, the department director, said there have been a "fantastic" number of mistakes in the forms received so far.

Within a week, Morgan said, the department will initiate a campaign of explaining how the forms should be filled out. A check of the first 400 applications showed that 270 had to be returned for correction.

Morgan said that because of the errors, all applications will be processed manually rather than by machine. The property tax relief form, he said, is far more complicated than the regular tax form. The same applies to persons seeking help with their rent bills.

It is probably too late for the Legislature to change the present law, Morgan said, but the department will attempt to get information on correct filing of the applications distributed quickly.

Sheinwold Force Your Opponent To Lead

BY ALFRED SHEINWOLD

National Men's Team Champion

When you're playing a hand at three notrump the opponents usually open their best suit, and you usually refuse to win as long as you can. This is sound procedure, but beware of exceptions to the rule.

When the defenders lead hearts, it is normal for South to refuse the first two tricks. South wins the third heart and leads out the top clubs and a club to dummy's ten.

West can afford to discard the deuce of diamonds, and this may comfort South if he is naive. If South takes a diamond finesse, however, he is down.

If declarer leads another club, West is forced to make another discard. West cannot afford to discard a heart, for then South can afford to give up a diamond trick. West will get one diamond and only three hearts.

If West, instead, discards a second diamond, South can play the ace of diamonds to drop the king. If West prefers to discard a spade, South can cash the ace and king of spades to drop the queen.

The trouble is that South can't tell what is going on unless West agonizes over each discard. If West discards without pain, South will try a finesse, and that will be the end of him.

South can make the contract without guesswork if he takes the second heart, cashes the ace and king of clubs, and then leads a heart to give the lead to West.

When West cashes two more hearts, South discards a diamond and one of his two remaining clubs. West must then lead a spade or a diamond, and either return gives South his ninth trick.

Why Not Commercials For TV Series Ideas?

Reviewer Lowry Sees Vast Potential in 'Slice-of-Life' Ads for Drama Material

By CYNTHIA LOWRY

NEW YORK (AP) — The problem perennially bedeviling the programming heads of the major television networks is finding sources of new show ideas.

Usual sources are switches on programs which have proved popular; combining two popular themes into one series, say a cowboy spy, an idea I just had.

If declarer leads another club, West is forced to make another discard. West cannot afford to discard a heart, for then South can afford to give up a diamond trick. West will get one diamond and only three hearts.

If West, instead, discards a second diamond, South can play the ace of diamonds to drop the king. If West prefers to discard a spade, South can cash the ace and king of spades to drop the queen.

The trouble is that South can't tell what is going on unless West agonizes over each discard. If West discards without pain, South will try a finesse, and that will be the end of him.

South can make the contract without guesswork if he takes the second heart, cashes the ace and king of clubs, and then leads a heart to give the lead to West.

When West cashes two more hearts, South discards a diamond and one of his two remaining clubs. West must then lead a spade or a diamond, and either return gives South his ninth trick.

For the kiddie hours, there's a great potential in the adventures of that giant who lives inside of top-loading washing machines. He must lead a fascinating, if cramped, life. Or further adventures of those women and children who can fly through the air merely by grabbing a can of scouring powder.

Isn't there a warm human story in Josephine, the lady

King Family Gets Chance In New Show

BY TV SCOUT

6:30-7:30 (Channel 11) — After 53,000 letters poured into the ABC-TV offices following their appearance in a family special last summer, the network decided to give The King Family, 36 members strong, their own series. From the smallest tyke to dad, William King Driggs, they sing and dance in sort of a one-family Mitch Miller tradition. The production is as fetching as a new calico dress, with lots of innocent fun.

PREMIERE

4-5 (Channel 5) — Bing Crosby's 24th Golf Championship at Pebble Beach, Calif.

4-5:30 (Channel 11) — Film World of Sports has wide highlights of the World Barrel Jumping Championship; the World Championship Demolition Derby and the World Overall Professional High Diving Championship.

6:30-7:30 (Channel 2) — On The Jackie Gleason Show, the spotlight is on sports, with the host's spry insight into some of the games and Reginald Van Gleason III reading "Casey at the Bat."

7-7:30 (Channel 4-5) — Kentucky Jones has a somewhat inspired episode, "Bad Penny," in which Ike (Ricky Der) proves to be a whiz at choosing the winners at the race track.

7:30-8:30 (Channel 11) — Historians note: The Lawrence Welk Show presents its 500th session of breezy champagne music, with the bandleader host still going strong.

7:30-10 (Channel 4-5) — "The Rainmaker" is the Saturday Night at the Movies offering, and it's a drama that shouldn't be missed. The stars are Burt Lancaster and Katharine Hepburn. COLOR.

8-9 (Channel 2) — Peter Lawford is the chief guest on The Entertainers. He joins regulars Carol Burnett and Caterina Valente and Silvio Francesco, Miss Valenti's brother.

8:30-9:30 (Channel 11) — Kate Smith, slowly emerging out of semi-retirement, is the glowing sparkplug hostess of The Hollywood Palace.

Kimberly Retains Second Place With Win Over Ghosts

Gary Van Cuyk Stars in First Starting Role for Papermakers

BY ED VAN BERKEL
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

KIMBERLY — The Kimberly Papermakers spurred for three quick baskets in less than a minute midway through the third period which carried them to a 63-54 win over the Kaukauna Ghosts here Friday night in a game which was nip and tuck through most of the contest.

Coach Gene Mason of the Papermakers changed his starting line-up for the contest, inserting 6-4 Gary Van Cuyk who has previously seen mostly reserve duty. Van Cuyk played as though he intended to remain a starter with his ballhawking, rebounding and floor play besides contributing 14 points to the winning effort.

Play was slow in the first period with Chuck Meyer open-

St. John and Weber Lead Men's All-Star

Sandy Hooper, Olga Gloor Top Women's Divisions

PHILADELPHIA — (AP) — Dick Weber of St. Louis, Jim St. John of Santa Clara, Calif., Sandy Hooper of Anaheim, Calif., and Olga Gloor of Chicago led their respective divisions as 36 of America's best bowlers came down the home stretch in the $100,000 All-Star bowling tournament today.

Weber, the two-time former champion who won the qualifying trophy in the current tournament, dominates the men's American Division with a 451-pin lead over second place Tommy Tuttle of Rural Hill, N.C. St. John, who won the world's invitational championship last November, leads the National Division with a 251-pin spread over young Ted Hoffman Jr., who slipped from first to second place Friday.

Twenty men finalists — ten in each division — roll nine two-game matches today.

The divisional winners will clash Sunday in a three-game match for the $15,000 men's championship.

The $5,000 women's title will also be decided Sunday in a three-game roll-off between divisional winners. The women bowl seven round-robin matches today.

Mrs. Gloor, a perennial contender, has a tenuous 163-pin lead over Ann Slattery of Salt Lake City in the women's National Division.

Mrs. Hooper, 28-year-old brunette, leads Jean Winsch of South Bend, Ind., by only 151 pins in the American Division.

Weber and St. John met last night in what was expected to be one of the most climactic matches of the finals. Weber won the first game, 207-202, and St. John took the second, 195 to 170, in a low scoring inter-divisional duel.

A duel between the leaders of the women's division was equally inconclusive. Mrs. Hooper won the first game, 224 to 201, and Mrs. Gloor won the second, 201-231.

Green Bay West Trounces North

SHEBOYGAN — Green Bay West trounced Sheboygan North, 71-57, Friday night in a Fox River Valley encounter at Sheboygan. The win boosted West's conference mark to 7-2, while grabbing a 6-0 lead in the first all the way before Tom Ehike hit on a jump shot for FVL. GREEN BAY — The Appleton High School Terrors, led by the sparkling play of John Mumme and Bob Ness, rallied in the last three periods for a 67-49 Fox River Valley Conference victory over Green Bay East here Friday.

Firing passes and shots as if armed with zip-guns, East put on a dazzling first quarter performance that brought the Red Devils a 24-19 lead over Appleton.

Then they collapsed, almost unexplainably, and scored only 25 more points the rest of the way, bowing to the talented Terrors in a confusion of errant passes, missed shots and slow whistles, 67-49.

East's last lead with 28-27 with 5:00 left in the first half, thanks to four straight free throws by Russ Lenz. But it took until only 2:44 remained in the half for Pat Harrington to give the Devils their first field goal of the second stanza. . . and that was one of only eight they managed in the entire final three quarters.

Meanwhile, the Terrors struck hard and fast, led by shorty guard Mumme, and swept to a 39-33 halftime advantage and it was already quite obvious that East had spent itself in that first quarter.

Torre Rejects Braves' Initial Contract Offer

Catcher Cites Top Performance During '64 Season

MILWAUKEE (AP) — Versatile Joe Torre, Milwaukee's slugging catcher-first baseman, figures he did what his boss told him in 1964 and now it's time to collect his reward.

The 24-year-old Torre disclosed Friday that he had rejected the Braves' first contract offer in a telephone conversation with club president John McHale.

"I was offered more of a raise than I thought I'd get in our first talk, but the figure falls far short of what I hope to sign for," Torre said.

However, Torre said he doesn't expect trouble such as he had last year, when he missed three weeks of spring training before settling for a reported $25,000 after demanding $35,000.

"I did everything in 1964 that Mr. McHale said I should do before expecting the money I demanded last year," Torre said.

"He wanted me to drive in over 100 runs. I knocked in 109. He thought I should hit between 20 and 30 home runs. I hit 20. I wanted me to hit .300. I finished .281. I feel that qualifies me for the salary I'm asking."

Heroux, Gage Lead St. Mary With 26 Points

BY GEORGE MANCOSKY
Post-Crescent Staff Writer

MENASHA — Sophomores Mike Heroux and Mike Gage each scored 26 points to pace St. Mary to a 76-69 triumph over Little Chute St. John in a Fox Valley Catholic Conference game Friday night.

The victory was the third over the Dutchmen for the Zephyrs, who upped their FVCC record to 5-4 and overall mark to 8-7. St. John has a 4-5 league log.

Heroux, Gage and senior Kim Vanderhyden accounted for all but six of the St. Mary points and they were garnered by Dave Koerner.

Gage, a 6 foot 2 sophomore, who has developed rapidly, poured in nine baskets and eight straight free throws. He had eight of the Menashans' 19 last period points.

Heroux, deadly from the outside, canned 11 baskets and four free throws while Vanderhyden dropped in five baskets and eight free throws for 18 points.

Hammen Scores 24

Defending scoring champion Bruce Hammen, after a scoreless first period, canned 24 points to lead the visitors. He had 11 markers in the third period, including the first eight of the frame, which moved his club ahead after it had trailed by six at the intermission.

Jay Van Thiel and Dave Van Vreede shared runnerup laurels with 14 points.

NEENAH — Mike Boyd tallied 16 points, including a pair of game-clinching free throws with just over a minute left in the game, to lead Neenah to 51-48 victory over Shawano here Friday night.

The game was close all the way with the exception of the early portion of the second quarter when the Indians from Shawano built leads of 18-13 and 25-19.

Free Throw Accuracy

Neenah's accuracy from the free throw line was really the difference. The Rockets sank 13 of 16 while Shawano hit 14 of 22. Shawano actually outshot Neenah from the floor with 17 of 55 for 39.9 per cent. The Rockets hit on 19 of 65 shots for 29.2 per cent.

The left handed Vaughn James led the Indians with 12 points with Tom Prickett netting 11.

TWO RIVERS — The Menasha Bluejays, third-ranked team among Wisconsin's large high schools, rolled to its sixth victory against one loss in Mid-Eastern Conference play as they defeated Two Rivers here last night, 79-63.

The win was the ninth against only one loss in overall play this season, and it enabled the Bluejays to retain sole possession of the conference lead.

Two factors proved to be instrumental in providing Menasha with the win. The first, and probably most important, was the deadly accuracy with which the Bluejays hit on outside shots, making it difficult for the Purple Raiders to defend their goal. The hottest shooter was Dick Sorensen, who hit on six of 10 from the floor.

Overall, Menasha hit 29 of 51 field goal attempts for a searing 56 per cent accuracy. The second determinate factor was the apparent near inability of the Bluejays to miss from the free throw line. Altogether, they hit on 21 of 28 gift shots for an impressive 75 per cent.

The first quarter proved to be the toughest for the Jays, as the lead shifted back and forth during the opening minutes of play. Two Rivers drew first blood on a layup by Steve Weld, and then went ahead again, 3-2, only to fall behind at the hands of Rick Zimmerman and Tom Vanderhyden.

The Raiders fought back to regain the lead on a hook shot by Willie Thorne, but the score was soon made 10-9 by Bluejay guard Bob Smarzynski. The Jay regulars then settled down to business and manufactured a balanced scoring attack which prevented the Raiders from ever taking the lead again.

The Raiders again threatened near the end of the first half when they whittled the margin down to 27-25, but the Bluejays scored four points to close out the half. When they returned to the floor, Menasha became hotter than ever, and the contest became one-sided. They gradually pulled away to a margin of 18 points with three minutes left in the game, and then retreated to the final 16-point margin of victory.

Two Rivers had the first and third highest scorers in the persons of Dennis Sinkula, who counted 17 points, and Thorne, who contributed 15, but the balanced scoring of the starting Menasha quintet proved to be more effective. Sorensen paced the victors with 16 points. He was followed in quick succession by Zimmerman and Dick Slattery, each with 13. Don Steffen with 12, and Vanderhyden, who counted 10.

As a result of the outcome of the game, Two Rivers is now 2-5 in conference play. Menasha, still in first place, is scheduled to defend sole possession against Kimberly, which now boasts a 5-2 record, tonight on the Kimberly court.

LAKE FOREST, ILL. — The Lawrence University cagers were handed a tough 55-52 loss at the hands of Lake Forest Friday night in a non-conference clash. The win was only the second of the season for the Illinois quintet. Lawrence has now lost three in a row and has yet to win on the road.

Lake Forest jumped off to a 9-2 lead, but Lawrence stayed close and only trailed by six points, 31-25, at the half. The second half was extremely close all the way. With 18 seconds to play, the Vikings narrowed the deficit to 54-52. However, Lake Forest cashed in one of two free throw attempts when Lawrence fouled trying desperately to get the ball, and the Vikings were unable to score again.

Freshman Fred Broda and sophomore Dunbar set the pace for the winners. The 6-4 Broda, the leading scorer for Lake Forest, cashed in on one of two points and pulled down 11 rebounds. Teammate Dunbar was runner-up in scoring with 16 Sorensen 6 4 4; Zimmerman 3 7 4; Hanson 1 5 1; Smarzynski 3 2 0. TOTALS 29 21 15.

Hilbert Retains First Place in Little Nine, Levels Bear Creek '5'

Winneconne Takes Sole Possession Of Runnerup Spot

LITTLE NINE CONFERENCE

Hilbert retained its unbeaten record in conference play and Winneconne took over sole possession of second place as both moved to Little Nine victories last night.

Bear Creek proved to be a less 90-47 victim of the Blue Devils, while Reedsville moved to Winneconne, 54-42, in a game that would have been a closer contest had it not been for Tom Kel.

The remaining conference contests followed the pattern of Hilbert tilt, with lopsided wins being the rule. The Freedom Irish posted the most impressive point total in down-shooting, 105-53, while Omro blasted Wrightstown, 90-40. Denmark fell before Hortonville, 80-63.

Bear Creek never really posed a threat to the bigger, faster wins, falling behind quickly to a 17-7 disadvantage at the end of the first quarter. As a result of the loss, they remained tied in an eighth-place tie with Wrightstown with a record of 1-6.

Two Wolves hit for more than two points, while only two of Bear Creek's contingent could get into double figures. The center was Andy Schaefer, with 25 and Fran Wolf with 12. The main Bear Creek contributors were Ed Planagan, Darrell Zitske, with 16 and points, respectively.

Tom Nickel had his best day as the season for Winneconne as he connected on 14 field goal attempts and five free throws for a total of 33 points and 16 rebounds. Brother Nickel collected 14 rebounds and added nine of the 23 points. The rebound total for the 1-25; Smith, 0 1 5; Ferron, 0 5 5. Totals 11-18-31.

Stockbridge Records Fifth Loo Victory

STOCKBRIDGE—The Stockbridge Indians rolled to their fifth straight Kettle Moraine Conference victory here Friday night as they defeated Manitowoc Lutheran, 77-54.

The Lancers never threatened the league-leading Indians, mainly due to the fact that their ace scorer, Bob Meyer, was held to 12 points — his lowest output of the season. Indian Jerry Kiefer, Jack Van Gerry Steffen, on the other hand, had by far his best night of the campaign as he paced the Indians with 23 points.

Tom Schoen took second-place scoring honors for the victors, tallying 17. Paul Bruss led the Lancers with 14, followed by outside shooting, especially Meyer and Bob Kastner with 12. The part of Roger Huebner, contributed to break up the 23-77 mark zone and give Hortonville its win. The contest was Wood 0 3 3, Keuler 2 0 1, Mayer 4 6 3; Daun 6 1 2. Totals 28 21 19.

MANITOWOC LUTHERAN — (6 9 24 15-54) — Menges, 0 1 2; Luebke 2 3 5; Bruss 5 4 4; Kastner 3 6 2; Meyer 6 0 5. Totals, 20 14 23.

Bulldogs Defeat Truckers, 66-63

Dan Wright Scores Game-Tying Bucket, Paces New London

NEW LONDON — New London and Clintonville battled down to the wire and then some in Friday night's Mid-Eastern encounter on the Bulldog's home floor before the hometowners eked out a 66-63 overtime win.

The score was tied at 61-all at the end of regulation play when Dan Wright put in a rebound shot for New London as the buzzer sounded. Wright played an outstanding game for Coach Bill Beyer's squad tossing in 18 points, 12 from the charity line, controlling the tip-offs, and pulling down crucial rebounds.

Coach Carl Bruggink's team was short-handed as they went into the battle without the services of 6-2 Dan Hedtke, the team's leading board man and second leading scorer.

The biggest margin opened up by either team was a 45-37 lead by New London late in the third quarter. The Truckers rebounded with six straight points to narrow the lead to 45-43 at the third quarter mark.

New London got off to a good start when Len Lathrop tallied three field goals in the opening period while pacing the Bulldog's to a 14-11 first period lead. Lathrop accounted for 20 points in the game, the individual high. Hirschboeck with 10. Dahly tallied 16 and Walshinske 10 in aiding Dieck.

MUSKEGON, Mich. (AP) — announcement from Muskegon All America quarterback Bob Timberlake, who led Michigan to the Big Ten title and a Rose Bowl victory over Oregon State, said Friday he plans to sign a professional contract with the New York Giants of the National Football League.

Timberlake Plans to Sign With NFL Giants

The 6-foot-4, 210-pound athlete from Franklin, Ohio, made the announcement from Muskegon where he spoke at a father-and-son banquet.

Timberlake declined to disclose details of the contract but said Friday he plans to sign a professional contract with the New York Giants of the National Football League.

He said he planned to go to New York next Friday with his attorney for the formal signing. "I felt all along that I wanted to play with New York," said the 21-year-old senior. "I like the owners and Mr. (Allie) Sherman, the coach. I think they have been completely honest with me."

Very Good News In New York, Wellington Mara, vice president of the Giants, said: "That's very good news. It's the first I heard of it."

Mara said he had talked with Timberlake in Detroit last Monday. He quoted the quarterback as saying he had been offered "a very good contract."

Timberlake was drafted by the Buffalo Bills of the American Football League and had consulted with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers of the Canadian pro league.

Timberlake graduates from Michigan in May. He majored in sociology and said he plans to attend seminary school during the off season, "probably at Princeton University."

only 29 per cent from the floor on 18 of 61 while Appleton meshed 44 per cent on 24 of 55. East did outbounce Appleton, 33-32, but to no avail as the Devils lost the ball through violations and bad passes 23 times.

East's complete reversal had a near full house of fans bewildered, but no more so than the Devils themselves and Coach Bob Torresani. But in the final analysis, four facts stood out as clearly as the margin of difference.

First, East could not put the ball in the basket. After hitting on 10 of 18 shots in the first frame, the Devils managed only 8 of 43 the rest of the way and only two baskets in the entire game came from more than 15 feet away. The Devils' outside gunners, Ted Wittig and Larry Ebert, had trouble hitting the rim, much less putting the ball inside of it.

Second, East's brilliant first quarter, which saw the Devils set up basket after basket with beautiful passing, made the entire team pass-happy the rest of the way. Time and again, the Devils skipped relatively good shots to try and pass off for a better one and see it battled away.

Became Wild Third, with both teams running, the game became a wild, tumbling affair and the officials let it get out of control. This was to the benefit of the stronger, more muscled Appleton team.

Fourth, Appleton has a fine, fine basketball team. And Mummie was the finest Terror of all on this night as he punched in 27 points on nine baskets in 16 shots, all from outside, and added nine gifts in 12 attempts. He socked in 10 of his points in the key second quarter.

Harrington was East's high man with 15 but had trouble connecting from outside and hooped just one of five free throw tries. Wittig, the other half of East's one-two combination, collected just 10 points before fouling out with 5:23 left in the game.

The beginning of the end was signaled for East when Len and Brian Killins each missed an easy popper from right underneath as the second half started. Then the wildness set in and the Devils lost both their poise and their lead. They never got closer than the six point spread at intermission again.

Mummie pumped in 18 points in the first half while Ness added an even dozen. Ness' pinpoint passes also set up easy layups for his mates in the rugged first half. The 6-3 forward added 18 points to the Terror total. Bruce Miller contributed 10.

Lema's 136 Leads Crosby Golf Field

Champagne Tony Cards Second Round 65; Palmer at 145

PEBBLE BEACH, Calif. (AP) — Champagne Tony Lema, seeking his second straight triumph here, led the field by three strokes going into the third round of the $84,500 Bing Crosby Golf Tournament today.

But Tony said Friday after moving to the front that "I don't believe anyone leads this tournament until everybody has played all three courses."

The big names of the game today hit the monster of them all, Pebble Beach, 6,320 yards of Survivors of the 54 hole cut challenge it again in the final round Sunday.

The nation can watch it on television (NBC) the final two days.

Trailed Years Ago Lema, with rounds of 71-65 — 136, was better off than he was a year ago when he trailed Al Balding by five shots after 36 holes.

Nearest to Tony were Charley Sifford, 71-68, and Bill Collins, 69-70, each with a 139 total.

Some of the more feared name-players were in fair or worse positions as threats.

Jack Nicklaus, the 1964 money winner, shot a 68 Friday and was in the 140 group, along with Dave Ragan, Don January and Bill Casper Jr.

Arnold Palmer, with a 72, was back at 145, and U.S. Open champion Ken Venturi, after an 81-75, was far behind at 153. PGA champion Bobby Nichols' 72 gave him 141.

Ragan and Doug Ford, co-leaders after the first round with 66s, fell back. Ragan, two-under at one stage Friday, took a 74 as the fog and late afternoon cold set in.

Started Early Ford started early and wound up with eight bogeys, no birdies and an 80.

"I missed every putt I hit," he said.

Collins, who lost three strokes Thursday in a bid for a tie at the top, stayed in contention with 69-70.

The field will be cut today to the low 70 pros and ties and the 40 low pro-amateur teams.

Despite his poor individual efforts, Venturi and his partner, Jim Lange of San Francisco, led in the best ball program play with 61-65 — 126. Lange has now helped Ken 30 strokes. The pro on the winning team will earn $4,000. The individual pro champ gets $7,500.

Bruce Weber Paces Indians To 85-61 Win

OSHKOSH — Oshkosh High School broke a 4-game basketball losing streak Friday night by burying Sheboygan South, 85-61, here.

Bruce Weber paced the Indians with 22 points and 18 rebounds. Oshkosh also had three other players in double figures — Mike Malone with 17, Greg Seibold with 15 and Bruce Erickson with 13.

Bill Simenz was the lone South cager to top the 10 mark, with 12, and eight of those markers coming on free throws.

Oshkosh shot a hot 69 per cent in the first quarter to take a commanding 29-15 advantage and it was never close thereafter. The Indians led, 43-31, at halftime.

Coach Don Erickson's winning quint hit on 47 per cent of its shots, while the visitors managed to click on only 21 per cent. Oshkosh also held a rebounding advantage of 48-35.

Oshkosh is now 5-4 in Fox River Valley Conference play and South is 2-7. Oshkosh had previously tipped the Sheboygan team there, 80-70, in the opening game of the season.

Nationalizing the Railroads

Heads of the 22 unions making up the Railway Labor Executives Association have recommended that the federal government buy and operate the nation's railroads. The decision reverses a 45-year-old union policy of opposition to nationalization of the carriers.

The public will question why the railroad union leaders have suddenly changed positions. They give one general and three specific reasons.

The group said the general basis for their conclusion is that "present management of the railroad industry no longer has sufficient concern for the interests and needs of the general public to be entrusted with the stewardship of the most fundamental and most essential part of our nation's transportation system."

Specifically, the union leaders cite:

1. "The failure of the railroads to give adequate service, reflected in the 'progressive elimination' of passenger trains and the failure of the carriers to provide adequate equipment and service for freight shipments."

2. "The persistent refusal by rail management to join with railroad labor to establish adequate safety measures for the protection of both passengers and workers."

3. "The 'chaos' in the industry's labor relations."

The policy statement by union leaders coincides with year-end financial reports by a number of railroads across the country which reveal that for the first time in the post-war era some railroads are making real progress toward stable financial operations.

The truth of the matter really is that new and progressive management has come into the railroad industry in recent years which is starting to correct the laxity in management which over a period of many years almost bankrupted a large number of carriers. This new management is instituting efficiencies, automated procedures, new techniques and equipment which is again making some railroads competitive with other transportation media.

This same new management is pushing for merger and consolidation of railroads to eliminate ruinous competition and in that process is fighting the federal government and regressive railroad management. It is also asking the federal government to begin to loosen the strangulating effect of government regulation, and to give the railroads a better break against government subsidized competition.

Many of these efforts run counter to the short-term interests of railroad unions. The elimination of unneeded firemen on diesel locomotives is a prime example, but there are many others.

Railroad management in the past gave away many management rights to the railroad unions, and now that they are attempting to win them back a situation has been created which the unions label "chaos."

What the railroad industry in this country needs is not government operation but leadership from the unions in helping management solve the problem of inefficiency in railroad operations.

The attitude of the union leaders in now turning to the government to protect their short-term interests exemplifies the biggest problem the railroad industry faces.

sprayed at the other centers and has to last for the rest of the season.

This hit-and-miss type of skating rink program is discouraging Appleton residents, both young and old, from using the smaller rinks because the ice is in such poor shape that it actually represents a safety hazard. No one enjoys skating on part ice, gravel and dirt, which is the situation at several of the present rinks. Warming facilities are also sadly lacking.

It's about time the city take more interest and pride in its outdoor recreation program and provide decent ice skating facilities or the sport will gradually disappear from the local scene.

use sex as a vehicle to deprave and dehumanize. Unfortunately they are not alone in this. In the past at least, many of our churches have had attitudes which served to use sex to dehumanize women. The real worry on our high school and college campuses should be not so much the apparent increase in illicit sexual experiences but when a sexual experience is deemed as someone's right at the expense of someone else. The chaplain at an eastern women's college was attempting to explain this, it seems to us, when he spoke about the attitude toward such experiences rather than condemning them all.

Many of the reform groups, honestly concerned, have failed to notice that the specifics to which they object may be only symptoms of a deeper illness or they may not have any valid basis for objection at all. Merely being against sex or dirty words or vulgar expressions is pointless, at least so far as adults are concerned.

This has also been one of the problems facing the courts. There can be no really lasting censorship of written or filmed material simply because the mores change. The court has recognized this is trying to appeal to "contemporary community standards" but it has time and again rejected or changed them and recently determined that such standards had to be national in scope. Efforts to legislate morality are always difficult and often of dubious effect and this is particularly true in the United States with our First Amendment protection of freedom of speech and of the press. The Supreme Court has often pointed out that such protections did not extend to pornography but it has never been able to determine for long what is pornography.

Our homes, churches and to some extent our schools are the places, as well as the courts, where this insistence upon establishing and maintaining the dignity and worth of the individual human being must be stressed. All should frown upon every effort at debasement or exploitation whether sex is involved or not. We would wish that the literary critics, as well as the blue stockings, would get to the real evils in some material instead of relying either upon literary value or four letter words as standards for judgment and criticism.

others would probably agree, they seem convinced that the only way to curb teen-age drunken driving is to establish general driving and drinking restrictions on all teens, good or bad.

BY RICHARD F. NEWCOMB
There's a new Wild Man of Borneo—President Sukarno of Indonesia.

Two-thirds of Borneo, the world's third largest island, belongs to Indonesia. The northern third of the island, made up of the states of Sarawak and Sabah (formerly called North Borneo) belong to the Federation of Malaysia. Malaysia, formed in 1963, also includes Malaya on the Asian mainland, and the neighboring island of Singapore.

For reasons best known to himself, Sukarno has sworn to "crush Malaysia." His announced reason is because he sees it as a creature of "British imperialism," and insists that it threatens Indonesia. Sukarno has now taken Indonesia out of the United Nations, the first nation ever to quit the world body. His alleged reason for that was because Malaysia was elected to a non-permanent seat on the U.N. Security Council.

Whatever Sukarno's true purpose, it is known that he has close ties with Red China, and Indonesia is the home of a powerful Communist party. Sukarno is also well-known to the Communists of North Viet Nam, thus pointing swords at Malaysia from above and below.

INDONESIA ON OFFENSE

Whatever Sukarno's pretensions of fearing Malaysia, thus far it has been Indonesia which has attacked Malaysia, not vice versa.

For months, small parties have been crossing the Strait of Malacca from the big Indonesian island of Sumatra, landing on the Malay peninsula above Singapore. The infiltrators have, for the most part, been rounded up by Malaysian forces. Malaysia has protested again and again: the incursions from Indonesia have, if anything, increased.

Now there are signs that Sukarno is putting on the big push—in Borneo. Early in January, Malaysia complained formally to the United Nations that "Indonesia is reinforcing its regular forces on the Borneo border by several brigades and some of these forces have already arrived and taken up their positions."

The complaint said Indonesia had brought troops from East Java, staged them through Pontianak and Mempawah, and they now stood on the border of Sarawak, opposite Ludu, Bau and Serian. Other troops from East Java, the complaint said, are poised high on the east coast of Borneo, near the border of Sabah. Malaysia said it feared attacks "more intensive" in 1965 than last year. If that happens, Malaysia "would immediately seek United Nations assistance in defense of its territorial integrity against such unprovoked aggression."

In the meantime, Malaysia has braced for the storm by calling upon its allies, Britain and Australia. British troops, warships and aircraft have poured into Malaysia in the past few weeks. Fred Mulley, Britain's minister of defense for the army, flew to Kuching, then toured the Borneo border near Serian in jungle green uniform. Gen. Sir Malcolm Cartwright-Taylor, commander of Britain's Royal Marines, said in Singapore that he had 2,000 Marine commandos in Malaysia, half of them in Borneo. Gen. Sir James Cassels, chief of the British Army general staff, visited Kuala Lumpur, and then went to Borneo. Near Kuala Lumpur, British V-bombers were staging through the base at Butterworth. The 44,000-ton aircraft carrier Eagle arrived to form the nucleus of "the biggest British naval concentration in the world." More than 500 paratroopers were coming in from England, and Gurkhas reached Kuching from Hong Kong.

British and Commonwealth forces available now total probably 50,000, plus Malaysia's own regulars of 20,000 and some 35,000 paramilitary internal forces.

They face an Indonesian armed force of perhaps 400,000, equipped with millions of dollars worth of Soviet arms.

On both sides, the legions are gathering. If Sukarno strikes, the situation could suddenly become critical. The United States is already heavily committed to the north, in Viet Nam. The U. S. 7th Fleet is in the South China Sea, reserves are ready in the Philippines and Okinawa. Sukarno, the new Wild Man of Borneo, holds the key to war or peace.

Non-Partisan Elections for County Officers Old Theme

BY JOHN WYNGAARD

MADISON—Whatever may be its dimensions in contests for governor and president and representatives in the United States Congress, the Democratic Party is the minority in Wisconsin in courthouse political terms. Thus it is probably inevitable that the perennial proposition for the nonpartisan election of county officers is being brought into the legislature again under Democratic sponsorship.

Wyngaard

Assemblyman Rogers of Kaukauna, who has won two elections as a Democrat in what is normally a Republican county, has announced that he intends to press for legislation that would remove political labels from sheriffs, county clerks and the rest of the county elective courthouse list. To assure the insulation of the county offices from partisan influences, he is also proposing that county officials run for election on the spring nonpartisan ballot with judges and buy a beer nor was I involved in a traffic accident, and I fail to see why I, or any good driver or occasional light drinker, should be subject to laws and actions directed at a few troublemakers.

A better solution, I believe, would be more severe penalties. When I was in high school, many students felt Judge Keller was unfair to teen-age drivers. Curious, I spent one morning sitting in on his court to try to decide for myself. My conclusion was that he was much too lenient. The average fine was so small as to be nothing more than a minor irritation to the violator.

In one of the Scandinavian countries, a drunken driving conviction means loss of driver's license for life. Perhaps similar laws which would cause a teen-age drunken driver to lose his license until he is 21 and—or a stiff penalty on tavern keepers, such as loss of liquor license, for serving someone underage, would be much fairer to the average teen-ager.

Arthur R. Vaughan, Appleton resident attending University of Wisconsin, Madison municipal officers, instead of in the fall when the party tickets dominate the balloting.

ANCIENT STORY

This is an ancient proposition and during the last 30 or more years during which it has regularly been offered has not yet received significant legislative support.

The reason is the eminently practical one that sponsorship usually comes from the partisan interest that has something to gain from the change, while resistance quite as naturally comes from the party interest that has something to lose. Mr. Rogers comes from a county where his Democratic Party has difficulty sometimes in recruiting a courthouse slate, because such a slate has so little chance of being elected. It is a Republican courthouse in Outagamie County, on the historical record, which means that the other representatives of his county in the legislature, being Republicans, will fall in line to vote against his proposition even as will the other attentive legislative politicians of Republican persuasion.

As a guess, the man on the street isn't very deeply concerned, one way or another. It is likely that if a poll of the electorate could be had in an objective way there would be substantial support for the idea of electing sheriffs and registrars and court clerks on their personal qualifications and records, rather than in associations with party campaigns for president and governor and other major offices. The same finding probably could be made about some of the state offices of minor or nonexistent policy function.

THE POLITICS

But it is not really a question of quality of governmental administration. It would be as difficult to make a persuasive case for the idea that a nonpartisan ballot would bring superior candidates or officials, as it is to argue that the partisan ballot assures good men in the courthouse places.

Mr. Rogers doubtless has the public welfare in mind, but it is demonstrable also that the result of his proposal would be to improve the position of himself and his party in the politics of his home county. In approximate terms, the Republicans have about two-thirds of all the courthouse offices in the state. There are signs of a gradual erosion by the Democrats of the Republican courthouse hold. But it is a slow and discouraging road for the Democrats, and to many of them the elimination of the partisan county ballot seems the best answer to their problem.

But the Republicans are precisely aware of such motives, and the Republicans are in position to veto any such experiments that seem hostile or dangerous to their own interests. Indeed, if the day ever comes when the Democrats overtake the Republicans in courthouse elections and they control the legislature also it can be predicted with confidence that their zeal for the nonpartisan election cause will subside.

Looking Backward

Assemblyman Ryan Spins a Yarn

100 YEARS AGO

Quoted from the Appleton Crescent for Feb. 4, 1865.

Assembly Chambers, Madison, Jan'y 20th. 1865—Old Friends—The weather has moderated very much and, if a thaw should follow, we may look for another anxious time upon the subject of the rotunda walls. We already have had trumpet blasts thereon fully as windy as those blown from Joshua's host "forinist" the walls of Jericho, and yet they stand in all their ragged grandeur like an Adams County well in the desert.

Perhaps you never heard the yarn about the wells in Adams County. It will do to appear in the clear type of the Crescent for the first time.

An Outagamie County farmer, tired of stumbling among the stumps on his clearing and getting but 25 or 30 bushels to the acre, made up his mind that he would wander forth to seek a location in the elysian fields he had heard tell of up in Adams County.

Off He Goes

So, he borrowed an old buggy, hitched in his blind-eyed plug Tom, and started.

In due course of time, he reached the outskirts of the domain to which his imagination and the head of the horse tended, and found the soil beginning to be a little sandy. Still, thought he from the stumpy region, the soil soon will grow better; so he stirred up his steed with a crochety stick and slowly emulated onward.

By and by he came to a beautiful clearing; a nice house, substantial barn, good fences, etc. In front of it a man was loading furniture into a wagon.

Goodbye Forever

"Good day, friend, are you moving away?" "Yes, Sir," came the answer. "Rented

Funeral Set For Former County Clerk

Rites Monday for Winnebago County's Miss Nell Hoffmann

OSHKOSH — Funeral services for Miss Nell A. Hoffmann, Winnebago County clerk from 1948 to 1963, have been set for 10:30 a.m. Monday at the Spikes, Mc Donald and Harford Funeral Home here where Christian Science services will be read.

Miss Hoffmann, who lived at 1118 Waugoo Ave., died at 10:40 a.m. Friday after being hospitalized for one week. She was born May 19, 1902, at Wakefield and came to Oshkosh in 1919 to attend the Oshkosh Business College.

Miss Hoffmann began her employment with Winnebago County in 1934 as bookkeeper in the county clerk's office. She was named clerk by the county board in November of 1948 to succeed the late Arthur E. Hedke who died within a week after his re-election. She filled out the balance of that term and the complete two-year term to which Hedke had been elected.

Miss Hoffmann was elected county clerk in 1950 and each succeeding election through 1963. She resigned in March of 1963.

The former county clerk was a charter member of the Aitrusa Club of Oshkosh and was a member also of the Oshkosh Business Women's Club and the women's division of the Oshkosh Area Chamber of Commerce.

A sister is the only survivor. Friends may call at the funeral home after 3 p.m. Sunday.

Private interment services will be held at Lakeview Memorial Park at Oshkosh.

A memorial in honor of the heart fund has been established.

Two Men Take Papers for 4th Ward Alderman

KAUKAUNA — A race developed for Fourth Ward alderman Wednesday when two candidates took out nomination papers at the city clerk's office.

Russell Dix, 312 E. Seventeenth St., incumbent, will seek a second term. He is an employee of the Thilmany Pulp and Paper Company. Henry Drechsler, 408 E. Eighth St. principal at Nicolet School, is the second candidate circulating papers. He is seeking his first public office.

Demands Imagination

'Marriage of Figaro' Scintillating In Lawrence Arena Presentation

BY JAY JOSLYN Post-Crescent Sunday Editor

The lyric theater again kept its promises Friday night as the Lawrence University Opera Theater brought off a scintillating, in-the-round production of Mozart's "Marriage of Figaro" in the Experimental Theater of Lawrence's Music-Drama Center.

The arena staging lessened not a whit the nonsensical goings-on of the Lorenzo da Ponte adaptation of Beaumarchais' comedy as translated into English by Daniel Sternberg. In fact, the utter make-believe of the book seemed to fit perfectly into this kind of setting that demands imagination and something like indulgence.

Of course, the book serves merely as the skeleton of the attraction. It is the music that fleshes it, clothes it and gives it elan. John Koopman's direction and cast produced Mozart in his merriest and most cynical mood. Director and cast recognize that opera is more than mere singing, that it involves dashing acting and high spirits as well.

Splendid The parties to the title are splendidly portrayed by Dale Duesing and pert Bobbie D'Ambrosio. Both match fine voices to sensitive comedic timing. They are fine.

Karen Schiebler appeared Friday night as the Countess Almaviva. Barbara Dancy will alternate with her during the run through Sunday. The role contains, perhaps, the most beautiful music and Friday Miss Schiebler filled the arena with the master's emotional melodies. She is a pleasure to behold and hear.

John Herr preserved noble aplomb and revealed another fine voice while playing the foolish charade's storm center as the Count Almaviva while Kenneth D. Anderson's spiteful quaver was just right for the schemer Dr. Bartolo and Alice Haselden fluttered comically as Marcellina, his cohort. Dick Chase turned in a most interestingly broad caricature of a servile gossip while Kit Cone rubber-legged his way into the Antonio role.

Most Empathy

The character winning the greatest amount of empathy Friday was little Cherubino, the heart-sick youth who always seemed to be in the wrong place at the most inopportune moment. In the tradition of the 18th Century lyric theater, the role was played by a woman and Sheila Pernot made the most of this most engaging assignment figuring in two of the musical highlights of the piece, Figaro's "Put off Your Gay Apparel" and her own lovely love lyric "Can You Explain Me?"

The chain of music that tied the performance together provided the strongest link of the production, Miss Kathleen Link, the accompanist, the performer with the most demanding role of all.

Crew's Hand

The sparse accoutrements demanded by the arena staging were colorful and in good taste. Friday's audience voiced its approval for set decorators Steve Blair and Robert Von Domelen with applause after their executing an especially difficult scene shift.

"Figaro" will scamper through his hectic marriage day again today and Sunday beginning at 8:15 p.m. On Monday the "opera festival" continues but at the Lawrence Chapel as Boris Goldovsky's Grand Opera Co. brings "Don Pasquale" to town and "Figaro" gets an encore performance on Feb. 2 when the University of Wisconsin Touring Opera Co. mounts its production in the proscenium at the Fox Valley University of Wisconsin Center in the Town of Menasha.

Historical Records Given To Air Base by Appleton Man

Special to The Post-Crescent

CHANUTE AFB, Ill. — A historical record of the World War II years at Chanut was received this week, the gift of Hilmar L. (Bill) Solberg of oldest technical school in the Appleton.

Five bound volumes of "Wings" for the years 1941 through 1945 were given to the base by Solberg, who was stationed at Chanut then. "Wings," the base newspaper at Chanut, issued its first copy on May 23, 1941 even though Chanut had existed as a base since World War I.

2 Hurt When Car Hits Parked Autos On College Ave.

Two persons were injured when the car in which they were riding early this morning struck two parked cars in the 300 block of E. College Avenue.

Injured were the driver, Mark A. Laux, 21, 1006 W. Lorain St., and a passenger, Daniel Quimby, 20, 1112 1/2 S. Madison St. Both had cuts but were not hospitalized.

Police said the car was heading west on E. College Avenue when it struck the parked cars. One car was pushed forward and hit a parking meter. The accident occurred about 1 a.m.

John Gschwind Jr., 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. John K. Gschwind, 319 E. Frances St., received a cut lip when a car driven by his father was involved in a two-car accident on Mason Street at W. Wisconsin Avenue about 8 p.m. Friday.

The Gschwind car, going south on Mason, collided with one being driven west on W. Wisconsin Avenue by John A. Lemon, 18, 129 N. Lake St. The boy was not hospitalized.

Receipt of these issues fills a great void in the history of Chanut. The books will be invaluable when the 50th anniversary of the founding of the Air Force is celebrated in 1967.

Many Changes

Chanut has changed with the years since Solberg was stationed here. Gone is "tent city" and replaced by airmen's barracks. The B-52 and B-58 jets bear little resemblance to the propeller-driven craft of World War II, and today Chanut trains missilemen.

Chanut has the prime responsibility for all training on Minuteman, the nation's "Ace in the Hole" and the Hound Dog missile, and conducts classes on systems of the Titan II and the mighty Atlas. It still has the only weather school in the Air Force. There's been a general face-lifting of the base too.

A new missile building, a firefighter's school, almost 1,500 more units of family housing, a new service club, Airman's club and NCO club have been added.

4 More File for City, County Posts

Three more candidates for Appleton aldermen and one for Outagamie County supervisor have filed nomination papers with City Clerk Elden Broehm.

Bruce G. Schaeffer, 519 E. South River St., an insurance salesman, is running for alderman of the 11th Ward and Mrs. Rose Schroeder, 224 E. Washington St., will be a candidate in the First Ward. She is a saleswoman. Candidate in the 15th Ward is William F. Errington, a wire weaver, 1807 E. Glendale Ave.

Al C. Fischer, manager of a car wash, is running for 15th ward county supervisor. He follows with a district office making an official visit and discussing plans for this year.

Village Clerk Issues Reminder Of Tax Deadline

LITTLE CHUTE — Village Clerk Gerald Lucy reminds residents, next week is the last week for persons planning to pay 1965 taxes on the half and half plan.

Persons have until Jan. 31 to pay the first one-half of their taxes and then have until July 31 to pay the second half at the county treasurer's office in Appleton. Those planning to pay taxes in full have until Feb. 28 to pay at the village clerk's office.

The clerk will hold special hours from 6 to 8 p.m. Friday and 9 a.m. to noon Saturday for those unable to make it during normal office hours. Normal collection hours are from 9 a.m. to noon and 1 to 6 p.m. Monday through Friday.

State Maple Producers Plan Shawano Meeting

The Wisconsin Maple Producers Council will hold a district meeting Jan. 28 at Shawano courthouse.

They will discuss a wide range of topics with maple syrup producers including maple production cost records, sanitary practices in maple production, state regulatory measures and new research findings. There also will be a question and answer panel. Other meetings are being held in Antigo and Kewaunee.

St. John Key Club To Entertain Kiwanis

LITTLE CHUTE — A combined luncheon with the Key Club of St. John High School will be held at 6 o'clock Tuesday in the grade school gym with Kiwanis members as guests.

Members of the Key Club will provide entertainment. A board meeting of the directors will follow with a district office making an official visit and discussing plans for this year.

Mid-Winter Storm Hits State; Another on Way

Southern Part Of State Has Icy Highways

Good Condition on Line From LaCrosse North to Marinette

MADISON (AP)—The State Traffic Patrol at 6 a.m. today said highways were in good winter driving condition north of a line from La Crosse to Stevens Point to Marinette.

South of that line, the Patrol said, all highways were slippery and extremely hazardous due to freezing rain and blowing snow.

Gusts up to 40 miles per hour were reported in some areas.

The Patrol said that highways that have been plowed are still hazardous due to ice remaining from Friday and from present condition.

1-90 north of Madison was reported in fair winter driving condition.

All other Interstate systems in the southern half of Wisconsin were snow packed and extremely hazardous.

The Patrol said motorists were advised to travel in an emergency only.

The Patrol said Northern Illinois also reported freezing rain and hazardous driving conditions.

At Combined Locks

Barely Seems Likely, But Police Hunt Bear

Police equipped with high-powered rifles searched fruitlessly Friday for a black bear reported seen in the vicinity of the Combined Locks Paper Co. mill in Combined Locks.

Little Chute Police Chief Robert Nechodem, called to the area in the absence of Combined Locks police, said a search of a small, one-half acre island 50 feet off the shore from the mill, produced some "large footprints" but no sign of a bear.

Nechodem said he could not identify the tracks, but said they were "larger than a dog track."

Mill employees in the office saw what appeared to be a lumbering black bear on the island and watched it as it frolicked briefly on the ice. One employee said the animal climbed into a tree for a brief spell.

"Commotion" Donald Hoh, Combined Locks supervisor and an employee at the mill, said the area was frequented by 10 to 12 children when he called authorities to seek out the bear. He did not see the bear himself, he said, but "the mill was in quite a commotion about it, so I figured they must have seen something."

Nechodem was aided in the hunt by County Patrolman Robert Keating. Neither officer said they saw any sign of the animal except for the large tracks.

Nechodem said the water surrounding the island is frozen solid and it would be possible for a large animal to cross to the island. He said there has never been any previous instances of bear wandering into the area.

Some witnesses who watched the animal from the nearby mill, "were pretty convinced of what they saw, and were concerned about it," Nechodem said.

Construction Up in Village

$1,600,000 Total Doubles '63 Mark In Combined Locks

COMBINED LOCKS — Construction in the village during 1964 amounted to $1,603,535, better than doubling the 1963 total of $725,430, according to the annual report released Friday by William DeGoey, building inspector.

Largest single permit issued was a $1,000,000 power plant project at the Combined Locks Paper Co. Lone industrial construction in 1963 was a $35,000 project at the Combined Locks when gas storage tanks were installed.

The inspector issued 29 new home permits estimated at $392,900 in 1964 compared to 24 homes for $294,500 in 1963. There were 14 garages built at a cost of $11,000 compared to 32 for $28,725 the previous year. Five building addition permits were issued, cost set at $11,700 compared to 14 costing $10,70 in 1963.

A permit was also issued for a $187,735 addition to Janssen School. In 1963 the inspector issued a permit for $305,000 for construction of St. Paul Catholic Church and a $33,000 church rectory permit.

No commercial buildings or additions were reported in 1964.

Valley Gardeners to Meet in Manitowoc

MENASHA — The Men's Garden Club of Manitowoc will host Feb. 1 to the Men's Garden Club of the Fox Valley at the Manitowoc Wisconsin Fuel and Light Co. building.

The club, at its last meeting, voted to participate in the civic celebration slated Aug. 1, in Smith Park.

Films also were shown on orchids.

Sales of the Wisconsin Paper industry now are a billion dollar business and Irwin Pearson, left, general manager of the Wisconsin Paper Group, Menasha, used a poster to underscore his report Thursday to Gov. Warren P. Knowles at Madison. Gov. Knowles, right, will speak at the 31st annual meeting of the Wisconsin Paper Group next Saturday noon at North Shore Golf Club, Menasha. (AP Wirephoto)

Six Reported Dead; Five in Car Crashes

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

A mid-winter storm packing a sneaky, paralyzing punch belted southern Wisconsin today as a cautious weather men charted the path of another potential snow wallop headed in the state's direction.

At least six persons were dead and scores injured as snow, sleet and freezing rain whipped the southern half of the state.

The storm hit with freezing rain early Friday. Sleet, hail and then heavy snow followed during the day and night. A whipping wind accompanied the storm.

Within the first 24 hours, five persons were killed in traffic accidents on slippery roads. Another, George Mudashaw, 61, died of an apparent heart attack while shoveling outside his home on Milwaukee's South Side.

Fox Cities area In the Fox Cities .05 inches of snow was recorded. Winds reached 35 miles per hour, and piled snow in drifts up to almost two feet deep.

Transportation into the Valley was reported late, but all flights and buses were expected to arrive.

More than five inches of snow fell in parts of Milwaukee County by Friday midnight. Madison had recorded three inches, with snow still falling.

The weatherman cautiously forecast "more than four inches" by Saturday morning. He explained the storm was difficult to predict, but added that "any time you have more than four inches, you have a heavy snowfall."

Another Storm

The forecaster said in early morning it was too early to predict the course of another storm headed northeastward from the nation's plains area, including North Platte, Neb., which received six inches of snow in a six-hour period ended shortly after midnight.

The storm caused numerous accidents and snarled traffic on icy highways. Many schools closed Friday and hazardous driving conditions forced postponement of high school basketball games in various sectors.

Pedestrians fell like bowling pins, unable to hold their footing on icy sidewalks and road crossings. Nearly 50 required hospital treatment in Milwaukee after spills. Three suffered broken hips. Scores also were injured in falls and auto accidents in the Madison area.

Traffic Jams

Massive traffic jams were reported, first by slippery conditions, then accidents and finally snow drifts which reportedly reached a depth of a foot on Milwaukee's North-South expressway late Friday night.

Two semitrailer trucks jackknifed on Interstate 90 at the Highway 12-18 interchange near Madison, tying up the traffic of more than 400 vehicles at one point. In Jefferson County, more than 20 autos stalled on an icy grade of Highway 26.

Snow Emergency

A snow emergency was declared in Milwaukee at 11 p.m. Friday, banning all parking on main streets and restricting that on side roads. More than 500 men and some 300 plows were dispatched into action to combat the drifting snow in the city.

A North Central Airlines plane bound from Chicago to Appleton landed at Winnebago County airport in Oshkosh because of "icing" conditions on the wings. After precautionary measures were taken, the plane flew to Outagamie County airport in Appleton, 10 miles away.

Deadline Set To File Papers

KAUKAUNA — Persons who took out nomination papers for the spring election have until 5 p.m. Tuesday to return signed papers to the city clerk's office, according to Karl E. Marzahl, city clerk.

Candidates failing to file papers will not be permitted to have names included on the spring ballot. Offices to be filled this year include five aldermanic posts and three school commissioners.

On the basis of persons circulating papers, it appears races will be held for all positions.

Correction

A Post-Crescent story Friday in which a charge of disorderly conduct against Elmer Knuth, 52, was dismissed, had an incorrect headline stating "Probation Ordered in Jewelry Theft."

The headline was inadvertently put over the story which contained the correct facts, and had no relation to the story.
